FISH AND GAME BANQUET HUGE SUCCESS IN CROSSFIELD

CROSSFIELD. — On Wednesday, March 28, the Fish and Game Association held its annual banquet, picture show and dance.

President Dewey Casey and his committee is to be congratulated on a wonderful job of organization for this huge function, at which over 400 guests were seated to a delicious turkey banquet in the basement of the Memorial Hall. There was an abundance of food and the tables were served by young married couples, who say that their guests lacked for nothing. After satisfying the inner man, the guests were treated to a series of shows in keeping with the Association. Mr. McDonald from Edmonton gave an interesting lecture on the year's activities of the Fish and Game and brought out any number of interesting facts. The following is a statement of a few facts picked at random from his lecture:

Big game shot in Alberta numbered 4,570 last year, 240,000 lbs. for meat. There were 5.4 pheasants killed per hunter in the province, and 127,000 fish legally caught in our area, which includes the Raven, the Red Deer, the Dog Pound and the Fallen Timber districts, which statistics charted 32 fish per angler per year. Mr. McDonald urged each angler to fill in the back of his permit to aid them in their work re facts. During his lecture, Mr. McDonald was aided by the use of a projector, which, in operation, showed a system of ratios and proportions for the various districts. Many unusual calculations and comparisons were tabulated, which facts proved that much time and thought is spent behind the scenes of our most fascinating sport.

Brook Campbell was then called upon to present the prizes for the predatory bird collections. These prizes were donated by Fish and Game. Marvin Miller won a .22 rifle in first place. In second place was Dorsey Elliott with his coveted prize—a hunting knife; whilst Jack Kelly was a close runner-up for third and received a carton of 32 shells.

All tied up for the "biggest fish" were three local men, who agreed to settle their destiny by cutting the cards. This done, everyone decided that Bert Lilley even had winning ways with Dame Fortune, for he was presented with the first prize, donated by Steve, a pair of high-top Leckie shoes. Second and third prizes donated by the Association, were handed to Phil Holman and Eddie Graf in order of merit. In the ladies' section, Mrs. Sharp, first; and Mrs. Stevens, second; won respectively, a fishing rod and a wool sports shirt—gifts from the Association.

Dawn Holman, Murray Fleming and Sheila Casey featured in the prizes for Juniors and by respective order of merit won a beautiful hand-made landing net (the work of Walter Wilson) and two cash donations, one of which was donated by Blake Stillings.

President Dewey Casey thanked everyone for their patronage and also tendered thanks to each and everyone who in any way helped with the success of the big day. $300 was presented to W. Hart, Mayor of Crossfield, which was instrumental in lifting the mortgage on the hall, and by a queer coincidence this Association was the first to make a donation to the hall when it needed it most. The mayor expressed great appreciation on receipt of the generous gift and also his great pleasure that the hall was at last free from encumbrance. $25.00 was then presented to Mrs. Edlund for Red Cross purposes. Mrs. Edlund voiced an appreciative thanks. The Association took stock of the food left over and were happy indeed that they could spare a nice donation of various sorts to aid the W.A.'s who were caring for the needs of a Yuxis conference on Friday and Saturday in the Memorial Hall. This timely and generous offer was readily accepted by the church organization with a great deal of pleasure. In every way the annual event was a huge success.

Crossfield Girl Weds Claresholm Boy

CROSSFIELD — Before an altar banked with fern, spring flowers and Easter lilies, a mid-afternoon wedding was solemnized in the First Baptist Church, Calgary, Monday, March 26, when Miss Alice Eleanor, younger daughter of Mrs. Marguereta and the late Douglas Hall of Crossfield, became the bride of Cecil Lavern, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dodd of Calgary. Rev. J. Gordon performed the ceremony, at which the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, R. M. McCool of Calgary.

The bride was gowned in dusty pink suit of gabardine with navy and white accessories and wore a corsage of cream tulle roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Bruce Dodd, matron-of-honor, who wore a pick-a-pick brown wool suit with mauve accessories and corsage of mauve-tinted carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Bruce Dodd of Calgary.

Traditional organ music was supplied.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Harris sky

For this occasion the bride's mother chose a grey costume with pink and blue accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom received in a blue costume complemented with mauve accessories and corsage of blue violets.

The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and a three-tiered wedding cake was the centre of attraction at the bride's table.

J. A. McCool of Edmonton, proposed the toast to his niece, the bride, and Mr. Lyall Wagness of McCool, was toastmaster. Many telegrams were received; among them, one from the bride's sister, Cora and husband, from Fort Lewis, as they were unable to attend.

After a short honeymoon, the happy couple will reside in Claresholm.

Keep Rent Controls

Premier Manning's statement in the legislature last week that the Alberta government will re-consider its decision not to step into the rent control field will surely be welcomed by many people.

With the federal government planning to abandon rent controls, April 30, fear had been expressed in many quarters that rents would rise beyond the capacity of the average person.

As Liberal Leader Harper Prowse commented, withdrawal of all rent controls would surely be a crushing blow to many families.

The most valid reason for maintaining rent controls here, we think, is that with the great increase in population Alberta has experienced, there just hasn't been enough new houses built to accommodate our growing numbers.

The demand exceeds the supply. Until this situation is reversed, we think it a vital necessity for Alberta to maintain a system of rent controls.

Curbs on Credit

According to the Bank of Montreal, in the bank's latest "Business Review," recent curbs in granting of bank and other credit will affect the tendency towards inflation in this country. As a result of consultations among bankers and with the Bank of Canada there is to be no further expansion of bank credit in 1951.

Specific steps to halt inflation are as follows:

(a) To discontinue making "term loans" for capital purposes as distinct from loans to finance operations of a current nature and, in the same context, to refrain from purchasing corporate securities with a maturity of one year or longer.

(b) To require margins of at least 50% in the case of loans to carry corporation shares.

(c) To increase substantially margin requirements in connection with loans on the security of instalment finance paper and to avoid an increase in the total volume of bank credit outstanding for such purposes.

(d) To pursue, wherever possible, a generally tighter credit policy with respect to loans granted for other purposes.

The trouble with this, as we see it, is that those businesses requiring bank credit for expansion will be denied the equal opportunity of advancement with other concerns well financed within themselves. These changes certainly represent a voluntary giving up, by the chartered banks of Canada of a rather lucrative loan business.

Discount For Advertising

Businessmen struggling with income tax returns should remember that they are entitled to deduct advertising as legitimate expenses, thus securing for themselves a liberal discount on 1951 advertising budgets.

We don't advise businessmen, however, to run up big advertising accounts just to be able to deduct on their income tax. A few rules prescribed by the Imperial Oil Company for guidance of their dealers are worth the attention of every progressive businessman:

1. Decide how much you should invest in advertising during the year. Don't consider advertising as a cost, but a profitable investment which will reap returns to your business.

2. Choose the (local) paper that has the highest circulation in your own neighborhood.

3. Your local paper will give you preferential rates for a regular series of advertisements. Continuity of a smaller advertisement run every week is more important than big advertisements run infrequently.

Every worth-while business has been built up on good public relations. Newspaper advertising is an essential aid in building business. As the Imperial Oil suggests, it is an investment, and gets the best results in the local community paper.

Jimmy Gardiner And the Wheat Pool

By T. W. FUE

What was intended as a $85,000,000 bonanza to western wheat farmers has ended up in a political fiasco not often equalled in the history of the dominion government.

It all started back in 1945 when the dominion government agreed to sell wheat to the British government on a five-year plan. The idea was, served up to western farmers as a guarantee that they would receive fair prices for their product during the first five post-war years, and did not need to worry about 20c a bushel oats and 50c wheat.

WRONG PROPHESY

What was the matter with this guarantee against low prices? Simply this—that no one had a right to expect a depression within five years of the end of a major war.

In 1946 I said that prosperity would continue until 1960 anyway, and therefore the wheat agreement, rather than guarantee farmers an above-average price would assure only a price control that would not give the producer any more than he'd get anyway.

The way it looked to the government, though, was that they were being pretty smart in insulating Britain pay a certain guaranteed price in spite of possible price declines on the world market.

Prices didn't go down—they went up. At least, they went up for everybody except our western farmers who were "protected" by this wheat agreement.

MERCURY DUST vs SMUT

While we're talking about wheat prices, let us look into the forthcoming seeding season. Treatment of seed before seeding has been a common practice for centuries. But seed treatment with mercurial dressings is a comparatively modern practice.

Farmers need not wait until seeding to treat their seed with mercury. The question will arise, "Why is mercury the best type of seed disinfectant to use?"

The answer has been given by scientific research and testing. In the work done by scientists they were well aware that for general use an effective seed disinfectant must meet a number of requirements.

It must control first, the smut diseases; second, the root rot diseases; third, the stripe diseases; fourth, it must not damage germination; and lastly, it must protect food reserves in the seed.

The first three are approximate headings of the controllable seed-borne diseases. Smut diseases are familiar in the form of Covered Smut or Bunt of wheat, Covered Smut of barley, and Loose Smut of oats.

A good mercury dust eliminates them. Experiments with Leytsoan and Leytsoal "C", the latter a new improved wet treatment, in laboratories, test plots and wide open practical farming, have proved them to be the most effective remedy available. Scientists have stressed repeatedly that seed grain properly treated with mercury, is immune to smut.

It was in large part the research work of Dr. J. R. Boer, chief scientist for the firm which manufactures Leytsoan and Leytsoal "C" which established that composition of an organic mercury compound could be related to its efficiency. From this it was a work of careful experimenting to establish what would be most effective as a seed disinfectant.

The root rot diseases are more widespread than popularly supposed. They evidence themselves in poor harvest yields. Losses of two bushels per acre are not uncommon. Thus far mercury has been shown to be the most effective remedy available.

The Leaf Stripe diseases of importance are limited to oats and barley and again are controlled by mercury treatment of the seed. It is impossible to tell by inspection whether seed is infected. These diseases cannot be controlled at all by formalin or other forms of treatment.

Dear Sir—I'm enclosing a money order to cover my subscription for another year. I enjoy your paper very much.

BLEAK OUTLOOK

Dear Sir—Under the international wheat agreement we farmers are losing 38 cents per bushel on our wheat, and this crop year the price automatically goes down again 10 cents per bushel. Allowing for further inflation and a drop in our dollar value this equals a 44 cent per bushel loss. What an outlook!

Dear Sir—I disagree with the person who claims to have read your paper for so many years and always found it fair.

I too have read your paper since it first started and I have sent letters to the Voice, but because they were pro-Conservative you have never printed any of them. I decided a couple of months ago that it is just a waste of time to write to such a one-sided anti-Conservative paper whose editors think all Conservatives should be exterminated.

Dear Sir—Permit me to add my "Amen" to T. W. Wiggins reply to Mr. McNeely's tirade against the Bible. I would just like to quote "The fear of God is the beginning of Wisdom," so I do not think there will be much to elevate the mind in Mr. McNeely's future comments.

TRUE PATRIOT

Dear Sir—There has been so much publicity on the Communist directors of the FUA that my curiosity has been aroused as to what are the activities of these two directors that is playing so-called 'havoc' in the Union.

The only fact that has been stressed against Mr. Marlice is that he has attended the 'World Peace Congress in Poland. As a veteran of five years service in the RCAF and the father of five children, has he not the right to desire peace, so that his children might grow up and take their places as useful citizens to help Canada become a more wonderful place to live in?

Would it not be more accurate to class him as a true Patriot with best interests at heart for Canada?

Dear Sir—Are the Russian people in sympathy with the Communists who rule them? I am of Russian descent, and I am sure they are not. Why did so many go over to the Germans in the last war? Why did so many refuse to go back to Russia after the war, even killing themselves rather than return? The peasants of France rose against their tyrants and I believe there eventually will be another revolution in Russia.

Highway Bans Ordered on Alberta Roads As Sudden Spring Thaws Endanger Traffic

Highway bans began to go into effect on Alberta roads this week as sudden spring thaws played havoc with road conditions.

Municipal District of Strathcona was the first municipality to order highways banned to bus and truck traffic. Other municipalities, such as Morinville, Sturgeon, Lac Ste. Anne, Smoky Lake and Starland, were close behind.

Strathcona in taking steps to protect road conditions.

The highway bans are placed on each spring during thaws to protect the roads from being broken up by heavy traffic under thaw conditions.

GOVERNMENT ALSO CLOSES HIGHWAY

The provincial government has also ordered some provincial roads closed to heavy traffic. The municipalities are responsible for only municipal roads.

While the road situation has been growing worse in the country, conditions in Edmonton have been improving this week.

Last week-end most city streets were a quagmire but continued sunshine, together with warm winds, completed the thawing job in record time.

The bans on country roads often last for several weeks, depending on the rate at which the roads dry up.

Heavy snowfall of the past winter, together with sudden changes in the weather, may prolong the necessity of bans.

When conditions grow bad on provincial roads, bus service is often disrupted. Truckers and

WON'T PAY FOR URBAN ROADS

Provincial government has turned down a request of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce that cost of construction and maintenance of all arterial highways passing through cities, towns and villages in Alberta should be financed by the province.

Refusal of the recommendation was given in a letter to the group from Gordon E. Taylor, minister of public Works.

buses can use only roads where thaw conditions are harmless, and often lengthy detours have to be made.

Highway bans of this nature save the province and municipalities an estimated $5,000,000 a year. If heavy traffic were allowed on roads when the spring thaw and run-offs were heavy, extensive repairs would be required each spring.

The Share River power project, centre of Yellowknife, Northwest some 90 miles from the mining Territories, was built under Federal Government supervision and Territories Power Commission. The plant supplies electric power to Yellowknife and surrounding mining areas.

ONE OF ALBERTA'S most promising young artists is Laura Unguran of Smoky Lake. Miss Unguran has many fine paintings to her credit. See story below.

Alberta Artist Winning Renown for Fine Work

A small art gallery in Smoky Lake displays over 200 paintings — paintings that are the work of one young artist.

Laura Unguran, modest Smoky Lake girl, is the artist who has created the paintings admired by hundreds of district residents.

This year she is entering the University of Toronto scholarship contest. If she wins she will receive a year's training at university there.

Miss Unguran was born and raised in Smoky Lake. After finishing high school she attended the Banff School of Fine Arts, where she received instruction from qualified artists.

Miss Unguran became interested in art after a motor trip to Vancouver. In 1947 she won an Alberta scholarship in art at the Banff school.

Most of her work is produced from imaginative characters and events she has read of or witnessed. Many of her paintings characterize events of importance that have taken place in our time.

Her collection consists of 250 fine paintings done in oils, water colors, charcoal, pencil, pen and ink and other mediums.

Most of her painting, says Miss Unguran, is done at nights. She is an operator of a dress shop and part-time telephone operator.

She has been offered $300 for one portrait, entitled "Old Black Joe," but so far has refused to part with the painting.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Unguran, came to Canada from Austria in 1901. She has five sisters and three brothers.

RED CROSS CAVASSERS BEGIN DRIVE TO MEET $1,200 OBJECTIVE HERE

BEISEKER—After a long delay due to the severe cold weather and impassable roads, the Beiseker Red Cross canvassers set out last week in slush and muddy roads to raise funds for this worthy Red Cross Drive.

Campaign Manager Matt Schmalz announced that a good showing has been made with a total of $400 of the $1,200 quota having been reached in the first week. The campaign will be carried on in April until it is completed.

This year, Red Cross canvassers are emphasizing the new Alberta Red Cross Crippled Children's Hospital in Calgary, which opened March 3rd, for the care of children whose parents cannot afford prolonged orthopaedic care. Patients are admitted from all over Alberta, the Peace River Block and the North West Territories.

But while much Red Cross work is done at home, the society has international obligations as well. For example, the Canadian Society's medical-social welfare team was the first to be sent to Korea to work under the United Nations with civilian refugees. The Society has allocated nearly half a million dollars for international relief, including grants for Korean refugees.

Names of donors and donations handed in are as follows:

Keoma Lions Club Entertains 150 At Charter Night Affair

BEISEKER—The Keoma Lions Club held its charter night banquet Saturday, March 31st, in the community hall. The Kathryn Community Club, of which Mrs. Wilfred Longson is the president, catered and served a swell turkey meal.

About 150 were present, including members from Irricana, the sponsoring club, Beiseker, Bowness, Calgary, Carbon and Strathmore. District Governor Merrill, Lethbridge, District 37C and District Governor Ken Long, Cardston, District 37D also attended.

Chairman for this charter night was Bud Percival, Keoma and the toastmaster was L. L. Schmalz of Beiseker. Mr. Schmalz congratulated the new club on their worthy efforts in Lionism.

President Harold Knight of Irricana introduced the guest speaker, District Governor Merrill of Lethbridge, who gave a splendid address on Lionism, and presented the club with its charter. Lloyd Lester, Keoma Lions Club president, received it on behalf of the club, and was pleased to report that their club

BEISEKER—Mr. Peter Schmalz and Mr. Frank Lount were appointed as delegates by the Beiseker Lions Club to attend the Annual General Meeting of the Alberta Provincial Council of the Canadian Cancer Society at the Palliser Hotel, Calgary, on Friday and Saturday, March 30th and 31st.

Mr. Schmalz and Mr. Lount stated that this meeting was very successful, and marvelled that so many outstanding men and women are taking such an interest in this cause. Some doctors pre-has 24 members. Pres. Harold Knight of Irricana presented the new club with the gong and gavel. R. Boyack, first vice-president, gave the acceptance talk on the gavel.

President Lloyd Lester, transferred from the Irricana Lions Club, was presented with the Lions' key by Deputy District Governor Don Robertson, Calgary, in recognition of bringing two new members to the Irricana club whilst he was a member. Mrs. Jerry Poffenroth was pianist for the evening, and Bert Sharpe and Bruce Hay were song leaders.

sent who are taking a keen interest in this work were Dr. Warwick, Toronto, executive director of the Society, and the National Cancer Institute of Canada; Dr. Williams, Red Deer, and Dr. Ingram, Calgary.

This was the first meeting that the Beiseker delegates attended, and they have learned much valuable information about the work done in this regard, and also of all the free services given to persons afflicted with this disease.

A motion was passed Saturday morning to build a wing on to the University Hospital, Edmonton, costing $150,000 for building and equipment to further the education of cancer. This building should be completed in two years' time. At the present time our young doctors who wish to further their education in this line have had to go to the States, and in nine cases out of 10 they secure positions there, and we are losing men who would be very valuable to us in this work.

The Federal Water Resources Division maintains district offices in Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver, and has a number of sub-stations in strategic areas.

flat on one's face

"Know-how" is a popular phrase in these times — the western nations' industrial know-how is said to be their greatest hope. But it is not enough to know how to do a job. Doing it is what counts. Between knowing and doing there are usually a surprising number of opportunities for falling flat on one's face.

The textile industry in Canada, of which Dominion Textile is a part, has been practising for over a century to avoid falling flat on its face. While learning its job and doing it, the industry has become the largest employer of manufacturing labor in Canada and the payer of the largest manufacturing wage bill.

LETTER TO LOUISE

Girl Shouldn't Marry Man She Doesn't Love

Dear Louise:—I am twenty-eight years of age and have a good job.

I have some good friends and enjoy life. Now my problem is this: There are two men I have been dating for quite a while and both of them would like to marry me but I don't love either one. I like them both very much and like to go with them places but I certainly don't love either one of them.

My mother thinks I am passing up a good chance for a happy home and says I am not as young as I once was, etc. But do you think it is a good idea to marry for a home and children when you don't love the man and are satisfied with things as they are?

SECRETARY.

Answer:

No, I do not think it would be wise in your case, to marry either of these men. Time was, when there was no other career open to women, that they grabbed almost anything that came along when they reached their late twenties. But there are other ways of getting a living now-a-days than by having a husband or some male relative support one. Girls can make their own money and live by themselves without creating a scandal and a great many of them prefer to do this rather than marry someone they are not in love with.

So if I were you I would not get panicky over my single state and possibly live to regret it later on if someone should come into my life that I loved. That would be a far worse tragedy than remaining single.

LOUISE.

Dear Louise—People are always writing about the boys and girls being away from home so much. What about the mothers and fathers who go out nearly every evening and leave their children? My father either goes out to meetings or says he has to work and mother is just as bad. It is either clubs or church or something else. That means that we stay home by ourselves or get out and go too. If parents would stay at home more maybe their children would, too.

SIXTEEN.

Answer:

You are very right, Sixteen. Certainly a child whose parents are gone from home most of the time must regard it more as a house than a home. The children who love their homes are not the ones who stay in them by themselves most of the time.

ONE OF FIRST casualties in Korean war is Pte. Charles Crooks, seen being welcomed home by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crooks, of Kingston, Ont. The 20-year-old Canuck is a soldier in the U.S. Army. He had his feet frozen in last winter's retreat from North Korea.

Agriculturists Stress Value of Good Seed

Provincial Department of Agriculture is stressing the annual pre-seeding precautions that farmers make sure of seed supplies and also make sure of their cleaning and germination tests.

The seed supply situation of 1951 may be unusual following the unusual crop season of 1950. This year some areas may find it difficult to get enough good seed.

In Canada the most serious of the seed-borne diseases for many years have been the smuts of wheat, oats and barley. Farmers are so familiar with these diseases that detailed description is unnecessary. Many know to their sorrow that a crop which grades "amutty" represents a serious loss of dollars.

What is the best form of treatment to avoid these possible losses?

The method most recommended by research scientists is the use of mercury. Well established chemical forms of it are available, cheap in price and easy of application. So well established not only in Canada but elsewhere has the practice of using mercury become that many farmers now regard it a part of the job of sowing their fields in the spring season.

Effectiveness of simple compounds of mercury as a preventive of some of common kinds of seed disease was discovered 60 years ago. Since then there has been a great deal of experimenting. Quite recently the work of two British scientists, Dr. Dillon Weston of Cambridge University, and Dr. J. R. Boer, now chief scientist of the F. W. Berk Co. in England, clarified the situation. The company is the manufacturer of Leytossan mercurial dust and Leytossan "C", the new improved wet treatment. Leytossan appears to be established as one of the most effective of the mercurial dusts.

At any rate the technical work of Dr. Dillon and Dr. Boer is being translated into millions of dollars for pockets of western grain farmers. It is now accepted that mercury dressings for seed give a wide range of protection to all crops. Canadian scientists have also established this.

In the west the experimental work for testing effectiveness of Leytossan and Leytossan "C" is carried on at Birtle, Manitoba, on land which used to be a provincial experimental farm.

Many Rules For People Who Want To Have Long Lives

If you want to stay young, you must:

Plan your life: Look ahead; decide what you want to be ten years hence, then make plans to achieve that goal.

Simplify your life: Get rid of non-essentials. "Our life," says Thoreau, "is frittered away in detail. . . . Let your affairs be as two or three, not 100 or 1,000, and keep your accounts on your thumb-nail."

Watch your diet: Fat around the middle means fat above the ears—overeating slows down your mind as well as your body.

Broaden your interests: Keep learning new things; develop sources of personal power that don't depend on muscular prowess or bursts of energy. Use your brain instead of your brawn.

HAVE A HOBBY

Make friends: Don't limit your contacts to your own family or your own generation. Join at least one club not connected with your work.

Have a creative hobby: The enthusiasm you work up for it will keep you going in mind. What's more, many a man has found a second and even more profitable vocation in bookkeeping or cabinet making or some other pastime entered for the sheer fun of it. Cultivate a sense of humor: Listen to humor programs on the radio. Make a scrapbook of the best cartoons and funny stories you've encountered.

Don't "grow old gracefully": Gracefulness, in this sense, implies resignation and resignation is merely a form of mental death. Don't stick to a job where age will be against you: Forty may be too old for ditch-digging or a job on the assembly line, but diamond cutters are still young at seventy.

Don't let retirement catch you unprepared: Health and financial security are not enough; some of the world's most unhappy men occupy the "riches" of exclusive clubs. Futility—not poverty or sickness—is the true scourge of old age.

DO SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Don't live alone: To keep its polish your mind needs to rub up against others. That's one big reason why married people in general, stay young.

that she will soon be back in our midst.

Mrs. D. McArthur is still a patient in the Didsbury Hospital. Lorna Bland had her tonsils removed and is back again in town. Considering that Lorna has had scarlet fever, mumps, and a severe septic throat, plus an operation for tonsils, she is still able to smile even though she is a tired little girl.

Mrs. Tommie Bland, who has been in the Holy Cross for surgery, was brought home by her husband on Friday, March 30, together with her daughter, Lorna. Both patients will have to take a lot of rest.

Virgie Laus is up again after another short illness.

Miss Bette McCrae of New Westminster, daughter of Alpha (Halliday) McCrae, is being married on Friday, April 20, to John Hawthorne of that city.

The Americans held a very successful bake sale and tea on Saturday, April 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wigle are rejoicing in the birth of an 8 lb. 4 oz. son in the Holy Cross Hospital on Monday, March 26. Named Reginald Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lilley are happy in the birth of a little girl, Carolyn Susan, on March 27, in the General Hospital, Calgary. A little granddaughter for Bert and Evelyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Onell are the proud parents of another son in the General Hospital on March 29.

Mr. Jim Sharp, who was taken back to the hospital is reported in very poor health.

Gyros to Operate Three City Parks

Three city parks originally established by the Gyro Club in the 1920's, but managed by the city for the past three years, will again be operated by the Gyros, it was disclosed this week.

Estimated cost of operating the parks, located on the south side, in the west end and the east end, is $8,000.

The club will work in co-operation with the Recreation Commission and the city parks department.

Mr. Ernie Willis reported that the Gyro Club will devote all its time to the three parks, and will attempt to make them "model playgrounds".

The $9,000 operating expenses include allotments for new equipment and improvements, including badminton courts and "general play rubber".
